Killbear Lodge, located in scenic Killbear Provincial Park sleeps up to 36 people in 16 double occupancy rooms and 4 single rooms; all with single beds. There are separate male and female washrooms with showers. The common areas of the lodge feature a fully equipped kitchen - including fridges, stove, dishes, pots & pans, coffee maker, and microwave, a large, bright TV room with DVD player, satellite, and propane fireplace and a quiet room. Outdoor BBQ and firepit.

Cost: $135 per person double occupancy for two night's accommodation and 6 meals; however, everyone will be assigned to a team of 5-7 people to prepare one meal (breakfast, lunch or supper.) Each team will be given a budget to buy food for their meal. Further details will be provided closer to the trip date.
